Market outlook

Stock market: The market went down from the opening with strong selling momentum. However, at the end of the afternoon session, the index suddenly gained again and ended the session without much change compared to the previous session. Market breadth tilted to the negative side with 12 out of 19 sectors dropping. Regarding the transactions of foreign investors, today they continued to increase their net selling level on the HSX and slight net buying on the HNX. Today's session showed a strong bottom-fishing force at 1,030, stopping the index's dropping momentum. However, the market is still trading in a wide range, investors need to be careful in the coming sessions.

Future contracts: Futures contracts decreased with the movement of VN30. It is recommended that investors trade cautiously in the coming sessions.

Covered warrants: In the trading session on February 23, 2023, covered warrants fluctuated along with the struggling movement of the underlying stocks.
